

The Incomparable Christ

J. Oswald Sanders

Chapter 28 -- The Word of Agony

What physical agony brings Christ's fifth word from the cross?

“While not ceasing to be all that He was before the incarnation, so really did He partake of our humanity that all the _____ infirmities inherent in being man became His.”

Because of the above statement, what comfort may sufferers in all ages take from this fact?

“There is nothing in the realm of _____ that was not experienced to the _____ by the Son of Man.”

What error does this word from the cross refute?

What prompted Christ to speak the word of agony?
(hint: Jon 19.28)

What does the author conclude about Christ's word of agony? (hint: Did Christ speak in our out of the will of God; why?)

Why had Christ previously refused the vinegar?

What application does Stalker make about our sufferings?

“Did He not thirst to be _____?”

How can you quench Christ's thirst today?

You can download reading guides for The Incomparable Christ and other books at www.lifeisworship.com on the Resources page.

acuteness -- intensity
anodyne -- painkiller, narcotic assuage -- soothe copperplate -- thick, block lettering distended -- swollen incongruity -- inconsistency semblance -- appearance zenith -- climax