Chapter 29 -- The Word of Triumph

What was the word of triumph?

Based on the various descriptions of the use of the word “tetelestai”, describe what the word means.

What six things does the author identify as being accomplished?

Was this a cry of disappointment, discouragement, or fatalism? Why, or why not?

The acronym WWJD means, “What would Jesus do?” How can we know what Jesus would do?

What were the covenants supposed to do for God's people?

“He had done what the first _____ had failed to do -- He had kept the law of God _____, and so obtained a righteousness that is now available for all who believe in Him.”

How did Satan's attacks change with the advent of Christ?

“Every obstacle standing between man's fellowship with God was _____, every demand of His law _____. There was nothing to add -- the redemption He had secured was _____ and complete.”
