

The Knowledge of the Holy

A. W. Tozer

17 -- The Justice of God

What two words do the Scriptures hardly distinguish?

What is the proper way to understand the prayers for vengeance in the Bible?

“Judgment is the application of _____ to _____ situations and may be favorable or unfavorable according to whether the one under _____ has been equitable or inequitable in _____ and _____.”

In what way is everything in the universe good?

What was Anselm's conclusion about God's justice not contradicting His other attributes?

“There is _____ in [God's] justice which _____ the exercise of His _____.”

“God is never at _____ with Himself. No attribute of God is in _____ with another.”

What is true about goodness if there is no justice?

According to redemptive theology, when does mercy become effective?

Between what two things is a war waged for our redemption?

What happens when the sinner casts himself upon Christ for salvation?

How does this chapter challenge what you think about God?

You can download reading guides for The Knowledge of the Holy and other books at www.lifeisworship.com on the Resources page.

asserts -- declares

criterion -- test

deserts -- what one deserves

opiate -- sedative drug postulates -- assumes severity -- strictness

tenuous -- weak