

The Knowledge of the Holy

A. W. Tozer

2 -- God Incomprehensible

What characterized the gods of mythology?

What does the Holy Spirit do to help us to understand God?

Describe what Ezekiel saw.

What, then, must we understand about man being created in the image of God? Why is this so important?

“If we insist upon trying to _____ Him, we end with an idol, made not with hands but with _____; and an idol of the mind is as _____ to God as an idol of the hands.”

What happens when we are left to ourselves with our thoughts of God?

Would you agree that the God of Christianity today is more like the gods of mythology than the God of the Bible? Why, or why not?

From where does the desire to know God arise?

What is the simple answer of the Bible which answers the question: how can I think of God if He cannot be known?

“In Christ and by Christ, God effects complete self-disclosure, although He shows Himself not to _____ but to _____ and _____.”

How did God come to us?

What do we call those things that God has revealed to be true about Himself?

How does this chapter challenge what you think about God?

You can download reading guides for The Knowledge of the Holy and other books at www.lifeisworship.com on the Resources page.

ineffable -- indescribable

infinitude -- infinity

troubadour -- singer, musician

unicity -- unity