

The Knowledge of the Holy

A. W. Tozer

3 -- A Divine Attribute

What is an attribute of God?

True or False: There are attributes about God of which we know nothing.

In what three ways has God provided enough answers to satisfy us?

What is the main way that we know of God's revelation of Himself in nature?

"We must break ourselves of the _____ of thinking of the _____ as we think of His _____."

Why are words so important in thought? What does this mean about what we think of God?

MORE QUESTIONS ON REVERSE

In your own words, describe what are man's attributes like. (hint: the sum of man's parts)

"God _____ in Himself and of Himself. His being He owes to no one. His _____ is indivisible. He has no parts but is _____ in His unitary being."

Can there be contradictions in God's attributes? Why?

"Love, for instance, is not something God has and which may _____ or diminish or cease to be. His love is the way God is, and when He loves He is simply being _____."

How does this chapter challenge what you think about God?

You can download reading guides for The Knowledge of the Holy and other books at www.lifeisworship.com on the Resources page.

disclose -- reveal enumerate -- count
temperament -- personality undisclosed -- hidden vigor -- enthusiasm