

The Joy of Being Forgiven

Andrew Murray

Chapter 8 -- God's Judgment Against Sin

Write out the verse at the head of the chapter.

TRUE / FALSE: Everyone is cursed if he does not seek forgiveness.

What Scriptures does the author use to support the answer to the above question?

“The person who is truly _____ of his sins _____ that his sentence is not too _____ or _____. It is not more than he _____. He acknowledges that God is perfectly _____ to deal this way with sin and _____ it.”

What do people commonly speak and think about sin and its punishment?

Why did David approve of God's sentence?

TRUE / FALSE: A person cannot naturally have the feeling of God's authority.

Why did the Lord permit this verse to be written?

Why are some experiences superficial?

“If a person is truly _____ of sin by the Spirit of God, he does not merely think of himself and what concerns him. His great _____ is that he has dared to commit sin against a _____ God, whose law is _____. His great concern is to _____ what he has _____. Since he can do _____ else, he _____ at the feet of God and _____ to him the only _____ that he can now give. He acknowledges that God is _____ in His _____.”
