

What has your reading taught you about discipleship?

Grace Goals:

1) Think of times when I let a teachable moment slip by. I will ask the Lord to make me sensitive to those teachable moments so that I may take the opportunities when they come.

2) What can I do so that prayer and use of Scripture become natural in my life?

3) Do I allow my sense of vulnerability to hinder my discipleship? How should I address those vulnerabilities?

4) Other:

Chapter 5 — Demonstration

FILL IN THE BLANK: “[Jesus] recognized that it was not _____ just to get people into his spiritual communion. His disciples needed _____ his experience was to be _____ and _____ if it was to be perpetuated in _____.”

What two primary activities did Jesus teach the disciples?

Instead of forcing the lesson on the disciples, what did Jesus do?

Why did Jesus wait to seize the opportunity to teach the lesson on prayer?

On what certainty did Jesus rely as He taught the disciples to pray?

For what two reasons did Jesus use the Scriptures?

What was a consequence of Jesus' ability to recall freely the Old Testament passages?

What was the goal in everything Jesus said and did?

In what situations did Jesus teach the disciples?

FILL IN THE BLANK: "[Jesus] let his _____ call _____ to itself, and not the presentation."

What did the disciples have to do if they didn't understand what Jesus taught?

What did Jesus not ask?

FILL IN THE BLANK: "It is good to _____ people what we mean, but it is infinitely _____ to _____ them. People are looking for a _____, not an _____."

Why does being a discipler make us vulnerable?

What does the natural and constant discipleship teach us about spiritual knowledge?

What happens if we don't apply our knowledge to real life?
