Robert E. Coleman

Chapter 6 — Delegation

Why was Jesus patient with the disciples?

What startling observation does the author make about the disciples' first year with Jesus?

When Jesus sent the disciples, what was the first instruction He gave them?

What were they to teach, and what was the evidence that their teaching was true?

Where did Jesus tell the disciples to go?

How would the disciples support themselves as they went?

What did Jesus tell the disciples regarding the people on whom they should focus?

In your own words, what warning did Jesus give the disciples?

What makes the gospel decisive?

Jesus explained that the Gospel possesses the power to divide families. Explain what Jesus meant.

Explain the likely reasons why Jesus sent the disciples in pairs.

How much of what you do for Christ do you do alone?

What one different aspect of discipleship did Jesus include in the sending of the seventy?

FILL IN THE BLANK: “Christian disciples are _____ men and women — sent out in the _____ of world evangelism to which the _____ was sent, and for which he _____. Evangelism is not an _____ to our life. It is the _____ of all that we are called to be and do. It is the _____ of the _____.”

What great concern lies behind delegation of discipleship?

What has your reading taught you about discipleship?
